

Grants & Donors

Updated: June 2026

Donor	Grant amount	Grant time period	Grant purpose
Open Society Foundations	US$174,838	September 2021 - December 2023	General Support
Luminate	US$232,500.00	December 2021 - November 30, 2024	Project support to identify ways to tackle specific dimensions of illicit financial flows
Stewart R. Mott Foundation	US$30,000	January 2023 - December 2024	General support
Open Society Foundations, via POGO Action	US$22,000	February 2023 - December 2023	Accelerating AML action in the U.S.
IJ4EU	EUR 34,500	March - October 2023	Investigative Journalism project: Defusing a Russian "Carbon Bomb"
Sunrise Projects	US$17,000	March - August 2023	Journalistic investigations into financial institutions and climate change
Luminate	US$10,000	November 2023 - October 2024	Strategic planning & teambuilding
UK Foreign, Development & Commonwealth Office (FCDO), via Governance & Integrity Anti-Corruption Evidence (GI-ACE)	GB£213,465	February 2024 - March 2027	Research Project: Lessons for combating illicit cross-border trade and money laundering from the Congo
The Waverly Street Foundation, via Transparency International	EUR 78,372	July 2024 - December 2024	Mapping pathways of undue influence at UNFCCC COP29
John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation	US$300,000	October 2025 - September 2026	Project support
The Fund for Constitutional Government	US$33,500	September 2025 - September 2026	Project support

UK Foreign, Development & Commonwealth Office (FCDO), via Journalism Development Network	US$264,833	November 2025 - March 2026	The Illicit Finance Data Lab
--	-------------	----------------------------	-------------------------------------